QUIANNA A LIVINGSTON	(MIN)...

GENERAL INFORMATION Accounting covers 10-17-05 through 6-30-08.
Assets: $14,637.46 cash

THIS CASE IS SET FOR HEARING ON amended accounting

THE FOLLOWING ISSUES AND/OR DEFICIENCIES IN THE PAPERS ARE NOTED:

1. Petitioner previously filed an accounting that was not in accord with the requirements of Pr.C. § 1060 et seq. Petitioner has now filed an amended accounting.
2. Attorney requests fees of $4,143.75. The itemization is illegible in some parts, but appears to deal only with those actions occurring in 2005 and 2006. The good portion of the fees were for objections to guardianship in Los Angeles. The fees charged appear to be excessive in that counsel is charging $300 per hour for his services. This appears to exceed the norm in this area for like or similar work. While is perfectly permissible for the guardians to hire whatever attorney they want, the guardianship estate is only liable for reasonable fees. Counsel also appears to be billing at $75 per hour for secretary or paralegal work. Whether secretary or paralegal, is not made clear in the petition. If paralegal, file a statement of qualifications pursuant to California Rule of Court, rule 7.754. If secretary, the fees are not recoverable. File verified supplement.
3. Is counsel waiving fees for attorney activities from the conclusion of the itemized billing to the present? File verified supplement.

4. Do not find any order in file from the court indicating what, if any, portion of the minor's income may be used for the minor's benefit during the accounting period. Here, the minor receives income of $1,252 per month. Early on in the accounting period the guardians were charging the minor between $300 and $582.50 per month room/board and care. With no apparent authorization from the court they increased that amount to $752 per month in 1-07. In 1-08 they increased the charge to $1,252. This appears to conflict with the statement at page 4, lines 14-15 that the minor's income per month is $1,203 and his expenses are $1,138. Additionally, there is nothing in the petition that sets forth a basis for the need to spend this amount of money on the minor on a monthly basis. File verified supplement explaining discrepancy and petitioner's authority to take the money without prior leave of court.
5. Need original bank statements supporting assets on hand at the conclusion of the accounting period. If there are no bank statements for the exact day then a letter verification by a bank official of the amount held in each institution on behalf of the minor on that date is permissible.
6. Petitioners waive fees.
7. Petitioners allege that current bond of $6,000 is sufficient. Bond must be based on assets on hand plus income for 1 year plus 10% increase for recovery of bond fees pursuant to Pr.C. § 2320(c)(4) and California Rule of Court, rule 7.297(a). Hence, bond should be set in the amount of $32,625.41. While it is true that this case could qualify for a waiver of accounting pursuant to Pr.C. § 2323 and 2628, it is still within the discretion of the court to require bond. In this case, due to the difficulty this court has had in getting a proper inventory and appraisal and a proper accounting a waiver of bond would not be recommended.
8. Petitioner has requested that all future accountings be waived as the estate qualifies for a waiver of accounting pursuant to Pr.C. § 2628. However, as mentioned in note 7 above, this would not appear to be advisable. Additionally if the court finds that the assets of the minor have been improperly spent and a surcharge is proper the estate will exceed the maximums for waiver of accounting.
9. File notice of hearing and proof of service on the VA.
10. Petitioners request reimbursement of costs advanced in the amount of $1,001. This amount covers the filing fees in Victorville and the apparent filing fees in Los Angeles to oppose a guardianship there.
11. File order after hearing.

RECOMMENDATION:

Need correction of notes. Need ruling on bond. If petition granted court will have to set future dates. Set hearing for the next account for 9-18-09, to cover the period of 7-1-08 through 6-30-09. Accounting to be filed 30 days in advance. Court will note that only a one year accounting period is recommended due to prior problems with this case.
